This course will focus on a systematic approach to integrate your business functions with tax strategies (both business and personal) to capitalize on current tax law. To be reviewed is the impact of the recent tax law changes in the upcoming years focusing specifically on those that impact the dental community and attendees will hear an update as to the latest trends in Washington. The seminar will also focus on financial risk management for dental practices.

Tony Kong is Price, Kong Co.'s Senior Director and has been with the Firm since 1976. He earned a degree in accounting from Arizona State University. He is also a graduate of the RAS – Accountants Boot Camp and a founding member of “Managing For Results”. Mr. Kong has been involved with the dental community for over 34 years. He is presently a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants - Tax Division, the Tax Resource Group, and the Arizona Society of Certified Public Accountants.

Chris Torregrossa graduated from the University of Denver in 1981. Upon graduation, Mr. Torregrossa joined Deloitte Haskins & Sells working in both the audit and tax departments. He then worked at a regional accounting firm in the Northeast which specialized in physicians, dentists, real estate development and construction. He joined Price Kong in September in 2006 and was appointed a director in December 2008.
